Throughout human history, many events have provided valuable lessons that continue to guide people today. Religious history, in particular, reflects the greatness, wisdom, and power of the one GOD. Over time, however, many historical narratives have been altered, influenced by political rulers, cultural traditions, and changing interpretations. Thus, we as worshippers of the one GOD, want narrate the most accurate history to help readers understand His guidance through reflection and learning.

The aim of this book is to present meaningful lessons from historical accounts connected to the major religions of the world (Islam, Christianity, and Judaism) while helping readers reflect on the greatness of the One GOD. Each page features scenes inspired by Quranic narratives about the prophets, past nations, significant events, and the moral lessons connected to them. The illustrations are designed to encourage children and families to learn, reflect, and discuss these stories while developing curiosity, understanding, and appreciation for their historical and spiritual significance.

Quran 12:3

We narrate to you the most accurate history through the revelation of this Quran. Before this, you were totally unaware.
